WHEN Coach T. Ray Mobley sounded the intital whistle to call candidates for the 1929 varsity football team, scarcely enough men reported to make three teams. Eight of these were letter men from the past season, which were used as a nucleus for a hard fighting team. The prospects for a great team were good, but something was lacking, and the story of our great team cannot be told by the games won or lost.

The season was ushered in by the Mississippi State Teachers on the home field September 28. In a game full of hard fighting and clean play, the Bulldogs nosed out their opponents by a score 7-0. The hard plunging of Morriss and Kloor, Southwestern backs, featured the game. It was in this initial game that Red Brown, Sophomore tackle, showed that he was varsity caliber, and would be a tower of strength in the line.

It was after this remarkable showing that we met L. S. U., one of the strongest offensive teams in the Southern Conference, to be swamped in a one-sided contest 58-0. However, the Tiger did not escape without recognizing the pluckiness of the little Acadien Band, and Russ Cohen, the State mentor, stated that our own Mims "Moody" Morgan was one of the greatest guards he had seen.

Without a breathing spell, the Bulldogs took on the strong Spring Hill aggregation the following week in Lafayette, and the sensational ball toting of Bilgare and Aitkens, speedy Badger backs, proved too much for the home team. The Southwestern fans got a real thrill when they saw "Bugs" Cagle, diminutive replica of his famous brother "Red", make a brilliant dash down the field for a thirty-five yard gain, which was responsible for the only Bulldog score. with Southwestern on the short end of a 28-7 count.

October 19 found the Bulldog showing its fangs in the Tulane camp. The beating of a Southern Conference Championship team by an S. I. A. A. team is not expected, so we were not so down in the mouth when the Bulldogs lost by a 60-0 score.

A two weeks rest seemed very favorable to the team, and when the Miami Hurricane invaded Bulldog territory on November 2, the S. L. I. gridders played their most brilliant game of the season. Outplaying the highly touted Florida team in every way, Southwestern sent them away, battered and beaten, 14-0.

The game was played in a sea of mud, but it was in this game that we were assured that our terminals were well fortified. McCullough and LeBlanc covered all punts and smashed through the offense play after play to throw the speedy Hurricane backs for losses.

It was a disappointed and heart sick crowd that witnessed the tilt with Southwestern's greatest rival, Louisiana College, on Home Coming day. Although the brand of football displayed by the home aggregation fell short of that of the previous encounter, it was a stubborn team that was forced to take the small end of a 20-12 score. The Wildcats had to use every atom of power, and they displayed a shifty team with well timed plays, typical of Walden coaching. Kloor at fullback and Morgan, Boulet, and Gooch in the center of the line stood immovable, but the Cat's off tackle plays were too much for our team, and coupled with a splendid aerial offense won for them the laurels of victory.

The Milsaps Majors nosed out the Bulldog team 7-6 on the Southwestern field November 23. The game was full of thrills, the first coming in the opening minute of play when Kloor threw a long pass to Morriss who raced twenty yards toward the Southwestern goal to be forced out of bounds by Hale, safety of the Majors. Neither team could gain much ground through the opposing lines and each turned to the air route. Rolufs, Boulet, Morgan, Bulliard, and Brown all came in for their share of the glory, as their brilliant defense was a redeeming feature of the game.

The Turkey Day classic found S. L. I. and Louisiana State Normal furnishing the entertainment for North Louisiana football fans around Natchitoches. Normal evidently being warned of the great strength of our line, took to the air in the opening minutes of play. They displayed an aerial attack that baffled the Bulldogs, completing pass after pass for long gains. The score was held down due to the fact that Southwestern put up a brilliant offense also, led by the flashy Vincent, scintillating sophomore halfback. But the work of Vincent and the other fighting Bulldogs did not keep them from losing 6-0.

In a post season game of "dog eat dog" the upstate Bulldog of Louisiana Tech proved too fierce a foe for the Southwestern canine. Having S. L. I. on the homefield in Ruston they were out to avenge the terrible walloping they received the previous year in Lafayette. Led by the brilliant "Sonny" Maroney, speedy back, and Denis Peel, stalwart tackle, the upstaters sent the Bulldogs home beaten 24-7.

At a special program the awards were made, Lloyd "Count" Boulet was selected by his team mates to lead the Bulldog of '30, while Mims Morgan who was given the Cambre trophy for the most valuable man to his team, was chosen to act as alternate-captain. Twenty letters were awarded to the following men for their work during the season of 1929. They are: Captain Elect Boulet, Morgan, Kloor, Saia, Captain Brand, Morriss, McCullough, F. Rolufs, LeBlanc, Ducote, Bienvenu, O. Rolufs, Gary, Richard, Vincent, Cagle, Bordelon, Bulliard, Brown and Gooch.

UNDER the tutelage of Coach Elbert Pickell, the Southwestern freshmen enjoyed a fairly successful football season. The Pups reported late for practice and the frosh mentor had his hands full trying to get the first year men in condition for their first game.

The Pups took on several neighboring high schools and won each game by a large margin. The frosh played two college freshmen teams. The L. S. U. Baby Bengals a team of stars from the various high schools of the state, and they were easily beaten by a large score. The next college game was with La. Tech frosh, it was in this contest that the Bullpups really found themselves. The broken field running of Cart and Landry coupled with the line play of Leger and Bill Roy proved too much for the upstate frosh.

Among the most promising candidates for 1930 varsity material are: Landry, back; Leger, tackle; Bill Roy, guard; Cart, back; and Renfro, guard.

S. I. A. A. Basketball Champions

WITH the return of five lettermen from the previous season it was evident that Southwestern would display one of the greatest basketball teams in the history of the Institution. True to all predictions the Bulldog Quintet came through, and to the extent that they were crowned Champions of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association. During the season the team won twelve out of fifteen games played against conference opponents, but it was in the tournament at Jackson, Miss. that they showed the esprit de corp that made them such and outstanding organization among the other picked teams there. It was this same spirit linked with co-ordination of play and fight that enabled them to come from behind in the final periods and nose out their rivals.

It came as no surprise, when all-conference men were picked, that two of our men were to be of that select group. Morgan Rodemacher, our little stick of dynamite, was given one of the forward berths on the first five, while "Doug" Kloor, the fighting Bulldog Captain was selected as a guard on the second team.

Coach Elbert Pickell, whom Southwestern students and followers think is the ace of coaches, is a former star of the Arkansas Razorbacks. He is one who knows the game from Alpha to Zeta, and has the capability of drilling it into his men. This is his second year at Southwestern and he has brought us the first conference Championship in the history of the School. We are truly proud of him and hope that he will remain a fixed part of the Bulldog coaching staff.

"Doug" Kloor, Senior, Captain of the team, the greatest guard that Southwestern has ever produced. He is a man who can always be depended on to keep down the enemy's score, and in the thick of the fray break loose to tally for his own team. His play was always outstanding, making him a very capable leader for his mates.

Elvin Brand, Senior, who received his third basketball letter this year, is a fast and brilliant forward. He played because he loved the game and his school. Nowhere can there be found a more conscientious athlete, or one who responds to coaching more readily. "Cutie" will be missed by the team as well as the students next year.

Stacy Gooch, Junior, whose bulky form was always a menace to opposing goal shooters. Stacy is very adept at recovering rebounds from the backstop, and seldom a man got more than one shot at the basket. We are very sorry that we will not have the services of this stellar guard next year, but due to his appointment to West Point, he leaves us in the coming June for the Military Academy. We wish you luck Stacy, and hope that you will be as much to them in athletics and campus activities as you have been to us.

Claude Hamic, Junior, Captain Elect, one of the smoothest forwards in the game, and one who can be depended on at all times. He handles the ball like a master, and covers the court with speed and ease that is unsurpassable. Although he was injured and out of the game part of the season his presence was always felt during his play. We sincerely feel that without any physical mishaps next year, he will make a capable leader for the 1931 Bulldog team.

Morgan Rodemacher, Junior, the diminutive basketeer, who has made a name for himself in annals of basketball at Southwestern. He is all over the court at all times making the going hot for the opposing teams. Speed and dribbling characterizes his play, and for two years he has led the team in scoring. His nomination to a forward berth on the all-conference team was well justified for we feel that none surpass him on the court.

Phidias Bordelon, Junior, a fast clever forward, who is ever in there fighting. "Bordy" has an uncanny eye for the basket, and his ability to slap rebounds through the goal is remarkable. With his never say die spirit he is always an inspiration to his team-mates in the game.

Holton Vincent, Sophomore, around whom Coach Pickell built the offense of the Champions. "Ugly," as our tall handsome center is known, handles the ball with ease, and his passing is accurate. He has speed and sureness which are the essentials of a player of his ability.

Boyd Faulk, Sophomore, a guard who when rushed into the fray makes the going tough for the opponents. He handles the ball well, and is able to get his body well off the floor in recovering rebounds from the backstop. Faulk will be a tower of strength in the defense next year.

William Shirley, Senior, who used his long arms to ward off opposing goal shooters, will be missed in the squad of '31. Bill was a conscientious player and could be depended on to always do his share in the defense.

WHEN the intercollegiate boxing craze swept the South, Southwestern was the first college in the S. I. A. A. to adopt it as a major sport. The services of Ed "Happy" Davis, one time pugilistic marvel were secured to train the Bulldog leather pushers, and with only two weeks of work the S. L. I. mittmen met Brink's Bengals from Louisiana State University, January 22.

Captain "Pinky" McConnell, scrappy lightweight leader of the Bulldogs, won the first intercollegiate match from Bannister of L. S. U. scoring a decisive victory over the Tiger battler. "Pat" Stirling, fighting for the first time, won his bout on that night.

On February 7, Coach Davis' battlers hopped over to Starkville to meet the Mississippi Aggies. The fine showing made that night over in Aggieland, when the Bulldogs won four bouts from the highly touted farmer boys, more than justified the faith of athletic authorities in the future of intercollegiate boxing here at Southwestern. Ollie DeGravelle scored a knockout over Tound of the Aggies in the first minutes of the second round of their bout. It was this same engagement that started "Red" Brown, Southwestern's heavyweight ace, on the road to fame. The "Big Red Head" scored an easy victory over Akin, Aggie heavy.

Following this engagement the Bulldogs returned home for a program with Tad Gormley's Loyola Wolves. Again the final decision was a draw. Rip Roaring Red Brown, in the final bout of the evening, kayoed Clem Sehrt of the Wolves in the third round of their bout.

Several days after this match with Loyola, Coach Davis, accompanied Red Brown, Don St. Germaine, and Womack on a journey to New Orleans to enter the Southern A. A. U. mitt tourney. Red Brown emerged with the A. A. U. heavyweight title, by scoring a knockout over Dickerson in the first thirty seconds of the first round in the final bout. Womack reached the semi-finals before he lost a close decision to the National A. A. U. Flyweight Champion.

The Bulldogs then met the L. S. U. Tigers in a return bout, and again the final decision was a draw. Don St. Germaine, Bulldog lightweight, surprised fans when he won a decision from Captain Alston Barrow of the Tigers, who was doped to win with ease. Red Brown maintained his perfect record when he scored a quick knockout over Joe Almokary, who put up a clever fight at the start but could not stand the heavy punches of the sorrel topped slugger.

By this time interest in boxing was at a fever heat, and scarcely a week lapsed before the Bulldogs trekked back to Mississippi to meet the Miss. Aggies in a return bout. This time the Bulldogs fared rather poorly, as a team, but Red Brown continuing his swashbuckling march through the South's best college heavyweights, won his second victory over Akin by a knockout, breaking his jaw with a terrific right hook.

Returning once again, the Davismen met the Louisiana State University for the third time during the season. The gymnasium was packed to capacity and there was hardly room for an underfed sardine to stand in. Jenkins, Southwestern bantamweight, lost a shady decision to Grant of the Tigers, to open the program. Bollich, a newcomer in the boxing game, won the first victory of the evening for Southwestern. Then LaCour, another newcomer, electrified the crowd with his sensational victory over McKee of L. S. U. Jesse Verret eeked out a draw with May, light heavy of the Tigers.

The Brown-Khoury match was beyond description. The excited crowd, the scowling Red, the startled Khoury are still a vivid picture in the memories of fans and students who witnessed the tilt. The first two rounds were close but the terrific blows of Red began to tell on the big boxer from Tigertown, and at the end of the third round the judges had no hesitancy in declaring the Southwestern slugger the victor.

After this bout the gloves were hung up for the season. It is hoped by all that the season next year will be as successful as this one, and with the experience gained this year, it will in all probability be even better.

Varsity Track 1929

THE Bulldog spikemen had one of the most successful track and field seasons in the history of the institution. The Bulldogs participated in five big meets and were victorious in all. The team was well balanced and was in charge of Coach Robert L. Browne, who knows how to place his men and is familiar with all points of the sport.

The Bulldogs started the season with the Southwestern Relay Carnival in which they were given keen competition by the Louisiana State University Tigers and other colleges. In the carnival the Bulldogs won more honors than any other institution represented. Southwestern then defeated the Louisiana State Normal Demons in the Southwestern stadium by a score of 80-32. The Bulldogs next went to New Orleans and had to fight hard to defeat Coach Tad Gormley's Loyola University Wolves 62-50. The Louisiana Tech tracksteers of Ruston then were taken into camp 70-42. The season ended with a decisive victory over the Louisiana College Wildcats at Pineville 84-33.

Some of the best individual records are as follows:

Boggs: 100 yard dash 10 seconds; discus, 125 feet; shot put, 41 feet; 220 yard dash, 23 seconds.

Howard LaFleur: Shot put, 43 feet 9 inches; discus, 119 feet; javelin, 168 feet; 100 yard dash, 10.4 seconds.

Morriss: High hurdles, 15 seconds; low hurdles, 24.9 seconds; high jump 5 feet 11 inches.

Narrens: Broad jump, 21 feet 9 inches.

Delaune: Mile run, 4 minutes 38 seconds; 880 yard run, 2 minutes 1 second.

Seale: Pole vault, 12 feet.

The following men were awarded letters: Elgin Boggs, Captain, Elvin Brand, Seale, Captain Elect, Otto Broussard, John Courmier, W. J. Bernard, Alphonse Delaune, Henry Ellender, Aubrey Hawkins, Clarence LaFleur, Howard LaFleur, Johnny Morriss, Harry Narrens, Burt Potter, Morgan Rodemacher, Russell Van Norman, Claude Verret, John Sonnier.

THE Tennis Team of '30 ushered the season in with matches with Louisiana College. The team misses the services of Gardner and Barnett who were lost through graduation. LaBorde is now playing his third year of intercollegiate tennis, and looked great winning his first match with Louisiana College. Stubbins had an off day in the Wildcat matches but he found his old stride later in the season, and is playing good tennis. Davidson, an erratic player, who is practically unbeatable when at his game, gave fans a surprise when he won his singles matches from Louisiana College without any practice. Hamilton is the fourth man of the team, he is a constant wielder of the racquet and can be depended on to put up a good fight. Anderson is manager and is used as alternate when needed, he is another steady player of the type as Hamilton.

Golf Team

ROBINSON DAVIES MALLISON MITCHELL MORRIS MORGAN SAUCIER

THE golf team, under the guidance and chaperonage of B. F. Mitchell and A. G. Mallison, is on its way towards a good record. One match has been played which resulted in defeat after a tight match, L. S. U. being the victor by a score of 7 to 3.

The members of the team are Jack Robinson, Captain, Mims Morgan, Max Saucier, and Johnnie Morris. Tom Davies is manager and first substitute. All are capable of shooting good golf.

One more match with L. S. U. will be played on the course of the Baton Rouge Country Club, and there is a probability that Tulane will also be played in New Orleans. It is a matter of regret that the students of Louisiana College, Tech., and Normal have not yet taken up the Scotch pastime, the game at these institutions being confined to the faculty. We hope that the students soon follow in the footsteps of their instructors.

Entry

We who sing today are those called Youth;
Are those who have a violent love of living,
Are those who laugh the while they seek the truth,
Are those who ask a gift and smile when giving.

And You, whose youth is gone, we touch your hand
In sympathy, and then we turn away.
Your youth is gone—and we—we understand.
We, too, must visit Age some far off day.

And there are those whose youth is yet to be—
Those unborn generations; they who will Come singing into living time when we
Are old, or ageless—heart and mind being still.

Yet we today think not of future years,
Nor does the past bring sorrow to our eyes.
We fling our gay songs upward, and our tears
Can wait until our youthful laughter dies.
